Section D: High School Completion Status

Provide one of the following documents that indicate the student’s high school completion status when the student will begin college in 2018-2019:

- A copy of the student’s high school diploma.
- A copy of the student’s final official high school transcript that shows the date when the diploma was awarded.
- For students who completed secondary education in a foreign country, a copy of the “secondary school-leaving certificate” or other similar document.
- A copy of the student’s General Educational Development (GED) certificate or GED transcript that indicates the student passed the exam, or a state-authorized high–school equivalent certificate.
- An academic transcript that indicates the student successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor’s degree
- For a homeschooled student from a state where state law requires the student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for home school (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copy of that credential.
- For a homeschooled student from a state where state law does not require the student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for home school (other than a high school diploma or recognized equivalent), a transcript or the equivalent, signed by the student’s parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school course the student completed and documents the successful completion of a secondary school education in a home school setting.
- Copy of a military form DD214.

 If the student is unable to obtain the documentation listed above, he or she must contact the financial aid office. **

If I purposely give false or misleading information on this worksheet, I may receive a fine, a prison sentence, or both. By signing this information request, I am certifying that all information is complete and correct.
